Gaming Security Professionals of Canada

Professionnels en Sécurité du Jeu du Canada

The Corporate Membership Opportunity

The Gaming Security Professionals of Canada (GSPC) was created in 1994 under the name of the Canadian Association of Casino Security Directors. As the original name suggested, this not-for-profit association had an important but limited mandate.

However, over time its mandate broadened to include VLT's, traditional lottery products and systems, eGaming, IT Security and Surveillance. What has not changed is the Membership which includes Executives and Senior Managers having decision making authority in gaming organizations across the country.

The purpose and objectives of the GSPC are:

- 1) To promote and encourage the exchange of ideas, information, experience, methods, processes and best practices related to security in the gaming industry.
- 2) To facilitate the collection and distribution of data, ideas, knowledge, methods and techniques related to security in the gaming industry.
- 3) To establish a code of ethics for its members and encourage observance of same.
- 4) To conduct an annual General Meeting for its members.
- 5) To host educational sessions by providing guest speakers, presentations and lectures in order to foster, encourage and promote discussion on cross jurisdictional issues and matters of common interest.

In 2011, the Bylaws of the GSPC were amended to allow for Corporate Membership. The purpose of this prospectus is to encourage our corporate partners to apply for membership in the Association.

The Value Proposition

Being a Corporate Member of the GSPC provides for direct access to industry decision makers throughout the year as an integral part of its network, and on a face-to-face basis at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) held over a three day period in June of each year at gaming venues across the country on a rotational basis.

More particularly, Corporate Membership provides the following:

- Your corporate logo and website link on the GSPC website
- The right to use the GSPC logo for the purpose of communication, marketing and promotions
- The right to use the GSPC as a reference
- Recognition at the AGM in program materials and signage
- The right to attend AGM social programming
- The right to attend AGM business programming
- The right to exhibit your products and services at the AGM
- Subject to program limitations and relevance of material, the ability to present new products and services at the AGM
- Access to the GSPC membership list
